THE ARC OF LIFE:

Thoughts during the season of rebirth

The arc of life moves from one season to another. spring turns to summer, summer to fall, fall to winter, winter to spring in an endless cycle. Jobs, projects, ministry, and family life, all have their seasons. Life itself moves through seasons-from infancy to childhood, middle age, and older adult leading to eternity.

Each season, each setting, has its joys, lessons and sorrows. As we walk with Jesus, he leads us into and through the changing seasons. Through it all, in His presence, we have already begun to experience the eternal life found in relationship with the Father.

From: leadlikejesus devotionals

Dear Friends,

Every time I read this passage I am reminded of:

the passing of time;
how much the remainder of my life on earth needs to count for something;
how often I have felt the presence of the holy one in the form of joy, awe, and protection;
how I will never be able to fully return, in kind, all the blessings received; and the humbling thought of just what my legacy will be.

I suspect many people may have similar feelings.

Presbyterians are a reflective people who understand the concept of legacy writ large. Animated by a sense of gratitude for all we have received in this life, we know how important it is to give back through our actions and efforts that impact others; the principles and values we live by; the relationships we nurture; and the way we steward all we have received. Sometimes, however, amid busy days, we forget to take stock and to keep the idea of personal legacy present and intentional. We have been given the great gift of a life from a God whose purpose for us on this earth has always been to truly learn how to love and to do as much good and as little damage as possible. Perhaps referring to the above passage from time to time will help each of us remember that the seasons are passing and that plans need to be made.

Wishing you personal renewal and abundant blessings this Spring!

Moderator, Planned Giving

STEWARDSHIP TEAM NEWS

During this time of year with Mother's Day, Father's Day, graduations, and even Pentecost, I am reminded about how much we all need others to show us the way, mold us as people, and work with us to accomplish goals.

As Pastor Kim mentions, the Presbyterian Church is a connectional church. We are joined by churches in our area and across the country to work together to help those in need, be good stewards, and spread the Gospel.

One of the ways these missions are accomplished is through Per Capita funds. Each member of the PC(USA) is asked to contribute a set amount which is distributed to Presbyteries, Synods, and the General Assembly. Our amount for 2025 is $44.66 per member. That money provides for the cost of bringing together people in the General Assembly, training events, special speakers, and the support of leaders in the church and future pastors approaching ordination.

FPCV is committed to paying our full requested share based on our membership figures. According to our 2025 budget, we have $12,500 designated as an expense with only $2,500 planned to come in as revenue. Per Capita is not automatically taken out of your offering. If you are a person who receives a box of offering envelopes, you will see a blue envelope specifically for Per Capita. However, if you give through automatic withdrawal, you need to make an extra contribution designated for Per Capita. When members pay for their Per Capita, money is freed up in our budget to be used for other missions.

Please consider making your own contribution of $44.66 to Per Capita to join in the connection of Presbyterians working together in doing good.

GRATITUDE

Many thanks to my church family for the outpouring of love and support my family and I received during this difficult time of loss. We are so grateful for the many prayers lifted up for Ken and for the visits that always brightened his day. May your love, prayers and grace continue to be with us as we navigate this journey of grief and healing.

DEACONS DOINGS

April has come and gone with hopefully all of its showers. The silver lining is April did bring us the Good News of Easter with the Deacons delivering flowers to all our Deacon Friends.

With the arrival of May, we will yet again, be visiting our Friends. Sadly, we have lost some in the past months. If anyone knows of others who would enjoy visits, phone calls, an occasional greeting card, flowers, and Advent bags please contact any Deacon to request adding them to our Deacon Friends list.

We are excited to receive Session approval to provide parking in the church lot on the 4th of July to be able to enjoy the fireworks. Jason Gordon has offered to manage this Deacon project. A good will offering will be collected.

After the last weeks of storms and seemingly non-stop rain just the thought of Summer is a Blessing!

We wish you a HAPPY ONE!
