Surprises!

Toby and I had just seen the last museum on our recent trip to Paris, France when we decided to eat lunch at one of the hundreds of restaurants along the streets of Paris. On this day, we stopped at an attractive corner deli not far from the Musée d'Orsay. We were escorted to the upper floor of the restaurant where we sat down and rested our weary legs.

Our table was in a small room adjacent to a kitchen. Surprisingly, many tables were located in this tiny room. The waitress invited us to sit down next to a young man. Wherever we went in France, we were always close to other people who were eating. On this day, we sat next to this man no more than six inches from his table. Since this guy was so close to us, I kind of felt we had joined him for lunch.

In a quick glance at the man, I noticed he happened to be wearing a shirt with a bulldog on the front. The lettering was faded but it appeared to be English. His shirt was teal blue, but I could not place where he was from. So, I took a chance and said, "Are you from the States?"

It turned out that this young man's name was Zach. He had just graduated from Butler University in Indianapolis and was on an 11 day vacation treat to celebrate his graduation from college. He was a fine young man, very polite and well-spoken. I thought he was somewhat brave in travelling by himself.

Toby and I talked with Zach for nearly an hour. We conversed about where he was living while in France. He likely had a good home with loving parents. At the end of our time, we said goodbye as if we were family. This had been a special time. It was certainly surprising that three people from Indiana could find themselves at a remote table in the middle of a foreign country.

Life is full of surprises, a lot them pleasant ones.

Just yesterday, I was playing a game with the preschoolers at VBS. Eleven little preschoolers had arrived for 20 minutes of games. I had decided before hand to play duck, duck, goose. To my amazement more than half of the class had never heard of the game. So I introduced it.

I held each little preschooler's hand as they played the game. At least that was the way it was going until I took the hand of one little girl to help her play. She promptly took her hand back. She looked at me in her confident manner and said, "I know how to do this." Wow! I laughed out loud. It was another surprise, a pleasant one.

Life has many wonderful surprises if we can take time to notice them. These surprises come in large and small ways.

The Bible has many wonderful surprises as well. I am constantly amazed at the beauty of these surprises.

I think back on the stories of Samuel, Paul, Mary and Peter. There are so many twists and turns in those stories but each of them have wonderful surprises contained within the story.

God is going to birth the Savior in a twelve year old little girl. That is surprising.

Samuel hears voices and is young, yet is called to lead the people of God. Peter denies our Lord, but God builds the church upon this unlikely man. Paul is that great persecutor of Christians, and yet Paul becomes one of those people.

Surprises, continued

Just the other day, I happened to read an article about the story of Naomi.

In the Book of Ruth, we learn about this marvelous and courageous woman.

While living in a foreign land, she lost her husband and two sons and returned with only her daughter-in-law Ruth and a heart full of sorrow. “Do not call me Naomi [pleasant]; call me Mara [bitter],” she told her former neighbors, “for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me” (Ruth 1:20).

As sad and as tragic as the story of Naomi is, somehow a discouraged Naomi kept looking for God. She kept herself open to God’s wonderful surprises. She believed that God had not forgotten her but loved her and would provide for her despite the tragedies that were taking place in her life.

What appeared to be a dead-end for Naomi had become a doorway for new surprises and opportunities.

The Old Testament book of Ruth is a brief narrative infused with an amazing sweetness and grace as “the Lord” is mentioned time after time.

Through Naomi and other characters in the Bible we are reminded that God works in surprising ways to make His love known and to accomplish His purposes—even during difficult times.

God’s surprises continue. So take heart. God has not stopped showing His kindness to you and me. Remain open and look.

Blessings!
Mark

Session Synopsis of June 18, 2018

“Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord” begins Psalm 95, and “Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination, and life to everything” according to Plato. Elder Brad Dirks began our Devotions this month with these verses to introduce an inspirational music video by Sarah Van der Ploeg and Josh Jones, the son of two of our members. You might enjoy the clip the Elders contemplated:

(https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c_qRgdeHS9s).

Two Personnel Team items were introduced by Elder Chip Wilkes. First, we are excited that our own Lynsey Buehler (a sophomore at Wheeler High School) has been hired to work in our Nursery on Sunday mornings. Lynsey will be a great addition to our staff.

But it is with great sadness and regret that Elders accepted the resignation of our beloved organist Janice Axmann. Janice has served FPC loyally for 19 years, but she has decided it is time to relocate closer to her daughter in Texas. Please join us in celebrating Janice’s long ministry to our church during a special Coffee Hour farewell on July 22, 2018. If you wish to contribute to a parting gift for Janice, please direct this to Beverlee in the office.

Christian Education Team has chosen the Spark curriculum for Kids of the Kingdom for the 2018-19 school year which was approved. The LIFT curriculum was approved for use in a multigenerational class of kids and adults on the 1st Sunday morning of each month of the school year at 10:00 a.m. Kids of the Kingdom will take place at 10:00 a.m. on the remaining Sundays.

In planning for the 4th of July holiday, it was approved to have two services on July 1, at 8:00 in the Pavilion and at 10:00 in the Sanctuary. Also, Ken Crews and Presbys are planning a fundraiser of parking cars on July 4th for the fireworks celebration.

In other business, Session addressed several topics:

- Pastor Mark gave an update of our relationship with First Presbyterian Church of Portage. (They value us very much, and they LOVE Ken Crews!)

- Elders directed the Clerk to write letters concerning our four graduating seniors/incoming college freshmen to both Presbytery and to the respective local churches asking them to make connections with the students. The Clerk was also asked to contact Valparaiso University to see if there are students who might be Presbyterians so we can invite them to our church.
- A letter from PC(USA) invited our congregation to join their national commitment to end hunger. Mission Team will evaluate this possibility.
- Pastor Mark reminded Elders that budget numbers will be due later this summer.
- Pastor Mark also reminded Elders that the General Assembly is currently meeting in St. Louis (our own Linda Long is a delegate!), and they are addressing a number of very serious issues.
- Building Disciples proposed that Policy #BD1 be rescinded. Following discussion, Session approved, as we currently follow the Book of Order Membership policy which is all that is necessary.
- Elder Sterling Miller, Moderator of Building & Grounds, announced that FPC has passed the Homeland Security Boiler Inspection!

Session was also reminded that there will be no meeting in July, and regularly scheduled team meetings will not take place. If members of the congregation have questions or concerns, however, they are encouraged to contact any Elder or the Pastors.

If you would like more information, please read the detailed minutes which are posted in the glass-enclosed announcement board in the Hospitality Center once they are approved. Also feel free to contact any of the Elders and/or the Clerk if you have questions or are interested in further details.

Respectfully submitted,

Judy Hollar, Clerk

“Answer the Call”

“Answer the Call.” That is what I came away with after listening to Pastor Mark’s sermon “Speak for Your Servant Is Listening” on June 3. God calls us to be His hands and feet, love our neighbors, and make disciples of all the people.

What will be our response? God’s method of contacting us doesn’t necessarily come with Caller ID – how will we know it is God speaking to us? As Pastor Mark said, “God can use his word, his creation, music, and others (to name a few) to speak to us.” Sometimes we are hesitant to take the call. However when we answer God’s call, oftentimes we are blessed in addition to blessing others. For example, in calling a friend to go walking, camaraderie was gained by both parties as well as an energy that lasted through the day. In answering a request to help at a funeral dinner, not only was the family of the deceased helped, but the workers also gained fellowship and a sense of purpose.

God calls us to give of our time, talents, and treasures – actually all are things given to us by God in the first place. In the Presbyterian Church, we have something called Per Capita, which is a $40 amount divided between Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly – linking all of the Presbyterian churches together as one body of Christ. Part of this money goes out to help churches in paying for education programs, in giving grants for mission work, and so on.

We, at First Pres Valpo, are committed to paying our entire Per Capita bill; and this money doesn’t come out of the pledge monies of our members. You must make a separate contribution. Our members’ giving to Per Capita is way behind last year’s giving. There is a poster in the Narthex with houses on it saying “It Takes a Village.” Please contribute $40 so that we all can work together as one body to help reach others both locally and globally.

Please, answer the call.

Thank you,

Rhonda Coffin, Stewardship Moderator

Parish Nurse Team News

The Parish Nurse Team is in the process of compiling a list of church members who are CPR and AED certified. If you are certified, would you please contact me at the phone/email below?

In addition, we are looking at the possibility of offering a CPR/AED class at FPC. We would need at least five students confirmed before the instructors would commit to teach the class. The cost would be approximately $25/person depending how many students; and the class would last 2-3 hours. Please contact me at HERoss@comcast.net or 219-465-1634 if you are interested in taking the class.

Coffee Hour

Attention families and small groups - please consider signing up to host a Coffee Hour in July. It's a wonderful way to practice "Radical Hospitality" as you provide much appreciated treats or snacks to young and old, familiar and new faces of our church family. Sign up on the Coffee Hour clipboard in the Hospitality Center.

If this feels overwhelming to you, keep it simple with purchased baked goods or fruit, cookies or crackers. Still too much? We have a closet of goodies that just need to be placed on trays (we provide those too!) and cleaned up once the 11:00 a.m. service begins. Contact Julie Golding with any questions at:

A Heartfelt Thank You

Dear Friends at First Presbyterian Church,

Thank you for your donation to the Hilltop Food Pantry. Thanks to donations such as yours, our flood disaster has become a tremendous opportunity for us to help so many families who run short of food money. You have helped us continue to be a presence in our community dedication to improving people's lives!

Sincerely,

Hilltop Neighborhood House

Presbyterian Saints

Please join us on Wednesday, July 11, 2018*, at 12:00 p.m. for our next Saints luncheon. The program following the luncheon will be given by the Butterfly Ladies: Laura Tucker, Linda Mapes, and Carolyn Dye. They will present the program "The Elusive Monarch: Where has it been and where is it going?" This team raises monarch (and the occasional swallowtail) butterflies. At that time, they will bring in various stages of the monarch life cycle: egg, larval instars, chrysalids, and adult butterflies/weather and monarch migration permitting. In addition, they will have suggestions as to how you may attract butterflies and other pollinators to your yard.

Make your reservation for the noon luncheon by calling or emailing the church office at 219-464-4985 or churchoffice@fpcvalpo.org by Friday, July 6, 2018. If you need to cancel, please notify the church office by noon on Monday, July 9, 2018. Otherwise, except in an emergency, you will be asked to cover the $9.00 cost of your meal as we have to pay the caterer. Thank you.

denotes due to the fourth of July, we will be meeting on the second Wednesday of the month.*

Romper, the River Otter News!

A Rolling River Rampage Report from Romper, the River Otter

Hi Everybody! It's me, Romper! We had a great time June 10 - 13 at VBS. I had fun with my 40+ friends and the Paddle Captains. We had great dinners with the families each evening. (I brought my own "catch of the day.") Then we met in the sanctuary to start the rolling river rampage, where each of our four groups followed the blue river through the church for a rotating 15 minutes each at Bible Story, Mission/Snack, Craft, Science, Games. Those leaders gave great lessons!

We finished out the evenings with a gathering in the sanctuary by the waterfall to dance and move to the songs on the video and recall our lesson of the evening. Harry Karabel even wrote a special song for VBS called "Water". Wow!

One night, we had a special guest who joined us for dinner and traveled around to our group sessions! It was Ruth Ingraham! She told me that she and the other members of the church love to see the kids and it makes them feel so happy when kids are around in the service. We love her; she did not get wet even once, but she came very close to the blue paper rolling river.

Guess where I am now!!! Big surprise! I have traveled across town to the First Christian Church to help them with their Rolling River Rampage! They said they would take good care of me! Our church wrapped up big paper waterfall set and offered it to the First Christian Church to use for their June 17 -21 Rollin' River Rampage. They were thrilled! You should have seen us wrapping up the waterfall and carting it in the bed of a pickup truck across town! It's good to help our neighbors!

Thanks for your donations of money in water bottles that we collected for the mission "Living Waters of the World." It will be awesome to hear how much money was in all the water bottles to help bring clean water to where they need it in the world!

You can bet I'll be back to FPC Valpo soon to make a surprise appearance. Heading for the river now Bye!!!

Love, Romper

Deacons Doings

Any special plans for summer?

Not really. Well maybe for individual Deacons. For the group as a whole it will be business as usual.

Summer is a time for many of us to slow down, spend extra time with family and friends, maybe travel a little or just get out in nature and walk with God.

But when it comes to serving our congregation the Deacons are not taking the summer off. We will back each other up as needed for individual time away. But you will find us still greeting people on Sunday morning, visiting homebound friends, taking flowers to hospitals and retirement homes, preparing the elements for communion, serving communion to members at home, sending "caring" cards to the sick, coordinating transportation to church and medical appointments, and saying prayers for those ill or in need.

Service to God's people isn't something we need to get away from, although it can feel like that at times, a sign perhaps we aren't doing it quite right. We may need to take a break to renew our spiritual connections and tune up our attitudes a little. That's nothing to be ashamed of. Serving God and God's people is a privilege our Lord grants us. Such service doesn't even happen except under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Sometimes we need to pray for that.

May you have a wonderful summer blessed with opportunities to serve.

Resale Shop News

Dear Resale Shop Volunteers, and Church Family,

We appreciate all you do for the shop. It's because of you, we have been able to donate $20,000.00 to $30,000.00 a year back into our community, plus, the free clothing to those in need.

At this time, we are desperate for help. Unfortunately, we have had to depend on the same circle of volunteers for back room help, scheduling, counter help and window displays. We need help! Please consider an extra shift at the desk, helping in the back room, or making a phone call, or 20.

Many of our amazing volunteers have either moved away or left due to health reasons, and we are not getting enough new volunteers to carry on. After more than 75 years of service to our community we may have to close our doors.

Please consider with prayer in your heart, the help you may be able to give, an extra day on the counter, helping restock our shelves, adding your creative flair, or adding your name to our emergency coverage list; so we may keep our mission alive for another 75 years.

Respectfully,

The Resale Shop Board

Carolyn Dye, Moderator
Linda Hartlerode
Cindy Robinson
Mary Jayne Shurr
Pam Skaltsas, Vice-moderator

Per Capita

Please prayerfully consider paying your per capita. The more per capita paid by each member, fewer funds will come out of our operating budget. The cost is $40.00 per member.
